

Ideas & Action: Human Rights in Boston and the United States

July 31, 2008, 9:00 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.

Boston Public Library, 700 Boylston Street
Old South Church, 645 Boylston Street
Copley Square, Boston, MA 02116

9:00 - 10:00 Registration & Breakfast, Welcome - Old South Church

10:00 - 12:55 The Leading Rogue State - Boston Public Library

The Leading Rogue State: Individual Human Rights

Jean Lynch (disabled), Rubén Rumbaut (migrants), Tanya Golash Boza (migrants),
Dave Brunsuma and Dave Overfelt (housing rights), Brian Gran (youth)
Respondent: Ty de Pass Presider: Alberto Moncada

The Leading Rogue State: Collective Human Rights

John Barnshaw (water), Mark Frezzo (democracy), Rodney Coates (culture), and Judith Blau (trade)
Respondent: Grace Ross Presider: Alberto Moncada

1:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m. Old South Church

Lunch

Human Rights Cities

Shula Koenig, PDHRE: The People's Movement for Human Rights Learning

Roundtable Discussions: Gender & Youth, Immigration, Lesbian/Gay/
Bisexual/Transsexual Identities, Building a Majoritarian Agenda

Roundtable Discussions: Health, Environment Food & Water, Peace and War, Labor, and Housing

Closing Remarks

Register Online: www.BostonHumanRights.org

Sponsors include: Mass Global Action, Mass-Care, Open Media Boston, Bikes not Bombs, Boston College Department of Sociology, Boston College Center for Human Rights and International Justice, Sociologists without Borders, Society for the Study of Social Problems, and Massachusetts Jobs with Justice.

Contact: info@bostonhumanrights.org

Image courtesy of Turbado Marabou, "Humanity without Borders"